

Bio:

Will Carr is an Assistant Professor of Spanish at Brigham Young University (Provo, Utah, USA). Will earned a BA in Spanish Translation and an MA in Hispanic Literatures from Brigham Young University, followed by a PhD in Spanish with a TS emphasis from the University of California, Irvine. Between his BA and MA he worked for 11 years for the US government as a linguist, primarily in translation, QA, translator training, and evaluation of fellow QAers.

Will teaches Spanish-English translation course at the beginning, intermediate, and advanced levels, as well as literary translation and literature. His research interests include translator training, translation in literature, dictatorship humor, and humor in translation.

Statement regarding nomination for ATISA treasurer:

I'm gratified to have been nominated for ATISA treasurer. I have been participating in ATISA conferences and summer schools since 2019, and I look forward to serving the members and the board of ATISA.